

Gallery Uptown Membership Application

Prospective Member

The Gallery Uptown is the second oldest co-operative (member owned) art gallery in the State of Michigan. It was founded in 1975 to provide a place for its members to sell their art. The continued success of the gallery is due to three key principles: quality art, hard work, and sales.

Quality Art

Many of our members have earned awards for their art in juried competitions throughout the United States. All of our artists continue to improve their skills by studying art and attending workshops held locally and internationally by renowned artists.

Hard Work

The amount of work involved in running a business does not diminish because it is a co-operative (co-op). Each member is both a worker and an owner. The work is shared by all. Members must be prepared to commit at least 12 hours per month to the gallery. Members work at least one full day per month plus their committee or work assignment time.

Sales

The sale of art brings us success. All members must do their best to help customers find art that appeals to the customer and close the sale.

We take great pride in our successes both as a group and as individual members. We share a kindred spirit with all members in helping our customers and supporting our fellow artists. We are sure that our continued commitment to quality art, hard work, and sales will support us for many more years to come.

Our membership is currently full, so we review applicants only upon a member resignation. We encourage you to submit your application and we will hold your submission for future openings. Once we have an opening we review all applicants and select one for review before our Board of Directors. Upon this opportunity the artist then submits five completed and framed (if needed) works and appears before the board for an informal interview. If this first review is successful, then the work is juried by the entire membership to determine whether or not an invitation will be extended.
